

California Republic Soccer Club

International Players' Code of Conduct

1. Representation and Professionalism

- Players are ambassadors of the California Republic Soccer Club, the State of California, and the United States when traveling abroad.
- Conduct yourself with integrity, humility, and sportsmanship at all times, both on and off the field.
- Follow dress codes and uniform guidelines provided by the Club during official activities.

2. Respect and Team Culture

- Show respect to teammates, coaches, officials, opponents, and host communities.
- Promote inclusivity, cultural sensitivity, and tolerance of different customs and traditions.
- No bullying, discrimination, or harassment of any kind will be tolerated.

3. Compliance with Laws and Rules

- Abide by all local laws, customs, and regulations of the host country.
- Follow competition rules, tournament guidelines, and club policies at all times.
- Possession or use of illegal substances or performance-enhancing drugs is strictly prohibited.

4. Discipline and Responsibility

- Punctuality is expected for all practices, matches, meetings, meals, and curfews.
- Alcohol, vaping, and recreational drugs are prohibited for minors, and strictly limited for adults as per club policy.
- Social media use should be responsible, reflecting positively on the Club and teammates.

5. Safety and Well-Being

- Report any injuries, illnesses, or safety concerns immediately to the coaching or medical staff.
- Travel in groups whenever possible; notify staff of your whereabouts during free time.
- Emergency contact information must always be carried by players.

6. Accountability

- Violations of this Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary actions including suspension, fines, reduced playing time, or being sent home at the player's own expense.
- Players and their guardians (if under 18) must sign this agreement before international travel.
